STIPULATED ORDER REGARDING PICKETING AND PROTESTING

AND NOW, this 31st day of May, 2007, the parties having agreed to the entry of a preliminary injunction regarding picketing and protesting by the defendant, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Defendant, Hugs for Puppies, as well as pickets or protestors and all other organizations or individuals conspiring, acting in concert or otherwise participating with them, or acting in their aid or behalf, or any of the Defendant's officers, agents, employees, members, and all other persons acting under their direction or in concert with them (herein, "Defendant's members"), are hereby restrained and enjoined from:

(a) Preventing or attempting to prevent any person having business at the premises from freely entering or leaving Le Bec-Fin, located at 1523 Walnut Street, or Brasserie Perrier, located at 1619 Walnut Street (collectively, the "Premises");

(b) Obstructing the sidewalk outside the Premises or obstructing any persons or vehicles seeking to enter or exit from the Premises, including persons making deliveries or pick-ups to or from the Premises;

(c) Using bullhorns or any other sound amplification devices during any protest or demonstration at the Premises;

(d) Engaging in violence, coercion, harassment or intimidation directed at persons having lawful business with plaintiffs, including patrons of the restaurants, their employees and/or owner(s), or following any such persons on their approach to or from the Premises. This limitation shall not be read to prohibit normal protest activities such as holding signs, chanting, speaking or shouting (except where such activity is otherwise prohibited by law including, but not limited to, laws against unreasonable noise);

(e) Congregating or protesting anywhere less than (or within) ten (10) feet from the edge of the property line, curbside, at 1523 Walnut Street (Le Bec-Fin), or protesting with more than eight (8) persons on the north side of Walnut Street, with up to four (4) persons permitted to the west of 1523 Walnut Street and four (4) persons permitted to the east of 1523 Walnut Street, in accordance with the 10 foot limitation set forth above. Defendant may have unlimited additional persons on the south side of Walnut Street, across from Le Bec-Fin, consistent with all applicable City regulations and ordinances, as well as any other laws or limitations;

(f) Congregating or protesting anywhere less than (or within) ten (10) feet from the edge of the restaurant area at 1619 Walnut Street (Brasserie Perrier), as depicted on the attached photograph, or protesting with more than eight (8) persons on the north side of Walnut Street near Brasserie Perrier, curbside, with up to four (4) persons permitted to the west of 1619

Walnut Street and four (4) persons permitted to the east of 1619 Walnut Street, in accordance with the 10 foot limitation set forth above. Defendants' members who stand on the north side of Walnut Street near Brasserie Perrier will not shout or yell towards the restaurant, or at its patrons, employees or owner(s), but may speak with passersby at a normal conversational volume. Defendant may have unlimited additional persons on the south side of Walnut Street, across from Brasserie Perrier, consistent with all applicable City regulations and ordinances, as well as any other laws or limitations; and

(g) Congregating or protesting at the residence of Chef Georges Perrier.

2. Defendant's officers or organizers will notify, by the most expeditious means possible, all members of Defendant's organization(s), and any other individuals or organizations acting in concert with Defendant or on its behalf, of the issuance, contents and meaning of this Order.

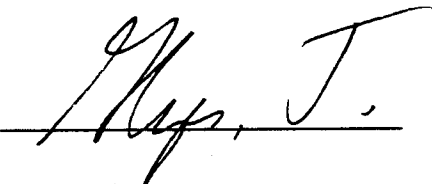

3. Plaintiff's service of additional true but uncertified copies of the Complaint and this Order upon any of the persons acting in concert or otherwise participating with Defendant, or acting in its aid or behalf, shall be legally effective.

4. The Philadelphia Sheriff's Office and members of the Philadelphia Police Department (including its Civil Affairs Unit) are empowered hereby to read and/or otherwise make known the contents of this Order to Defendant and anyone acting on its behalf or in concert with it and, further, are empowered thereafter to enforce the terms of this Order.

5. Anyone violating the terms of this Order shall be subject to contempt proceedings.

6. Bond to be posted in the amount of $5,000.00
